ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Barnes and Diehl would like to congratulate Michael HuYoung for receiving the 2019 Dunnville Award.

Michael HuYoung of Barnes & Diehl in Richmond has been chosen as the Virginia State Bar Diversity Conference's 2019 Clarence M. Dunnville Jr. Achievement Award recipient. The award, named after notable civil rights lawyer Clarence Dunnville, honors a Virginia lawyer "for setting an example that fellow members can emulate to meet the conference's goal of fostering, encouraging, and facilitating diversity and inclusion in the bar, the judiciary, and the legal profession." Michael was one of the founding members of the VSB's Diversity Task Force, the group that laid the groundwork that eventually established the Diversity Conference. As former chair, he continues to support and lead the Diversity Conference, serving on its Board of Governors for two terms, and helping to create the Law Student Mentor/Mentee program at the VSB Annual Meeting. Michael and the Firm of Barnes & Diehl, are proud to promote the mission of the Diversity Conference, as leaders and mentors for diversity and inclusion within Virginia's legal profession, while maintaining the high quality of legal representation for the public in which they serve.
