

Congratulations

The Richmond Bar Association's Hunter W. Martin Professionalism Award

Barnes & Diehl, P.C. congratulates Edward D. Barnes, upon his receiving the Hunter W. Martin Professionalism Award for 2022, from the Richmond Bar Association.

Mr. Barnes is an inaugural inductee in the Virginia Lawyers Hall of Fame, and had been ranked among the Top 10 Lawyers since 2006, in Super Lawyer Magazine. In 2018, Mr. Barnes was ranked "Number One" attorney among all the lawyers in Virginia, by Super Lawyer Magazine.

He handles family law cases of all types and levels, including the very highest level of complex equitable distribution and estate planning.

Ed is chair and founder of the National Center for Family Law Studies at University of Richmond School of Law. He has taught Ethics in Family Law at the University of Richmond School of Law. He received the Lifetime Achievement Award of the Virginia State Bar Family Law Section. He is Past President of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers, Virginia Chapter. Ed is listed in Best Lawyers in America® for 2021 and has been named "Lawyer of the Year" for family law in Richmond for several years. He was the inaugural recipient of the "Leader in the Law" award in 2006. He has been named a Legal Elite® by Virginia Business Magazine every year. In 2006, he was named Distinguished Alumnus of the Year, for the University of Richmond School of Law, and he has served as President of numerous local bar associations.

Ed frequently speaks throughout the state on behalf of the Virginia State Bar, through their Virginia Continuing Legal Education Program. He has presented continuing education courses for over 25 years. He has authored chapters in several family law books published by the Virginia State Bar Continuing Legal Education.

Ed is active in his church and in his community. He has been a licensed, instrument rated airplane pilot since 1978. He served as an Engineer Officer in the U.S. Army (1966-1969). He has qualified as a member of MENSA.
